

WAR on EARTH

World Military Spending $900 bn (approx.)¹
US Military Spending $453 bn (officially)²

Iraq spent $1.4 bn in 2001.³ And our other “potential enemies”?

Iran	4.8	Syria	1.0	N. Korea	2.1
Libya	1.2	Cuba	0.8	Sudan	0.6	TOTAL	$10.5 bn ³

“The US military is currently deployed to more locations than it has been throughout history.”⁴ In 2001 it had bases in 63 countries and 255,065 troops abroad in a total of 156 countries.⁵ Why? Consider:

World Energy Consumption	9,458 m	metric tons oil equivalent ⁶
US Energy Consumption	2,162 m	(22%, for 4.6% of the people)

It’s not just oil — it’s all resources. The US is using five times its share of everything and trying to maintain this by force and threats. While:

“The U.S. Department of Defense is, in fact, the world’s largest polluter, producing more hazardous waste per year than the five largest U.S. chemical companies combined.”⁷

Yet President Bush is trying to relax environmental laws for the military.⁸

War is even worse for the environment. Depleted uranium lasts effectively forever.⁹ Tanks measure consumption in gallons per mile (it can take five gallons just to start the engine of an M-1).¹⁰ One B-2 needs over 80,000 gallons (and five refuelings) for a single mission.¹¹ People suffer and die — and so do birds, plants, animals, insects, and the very land itself. The desert won’t recover for decades, if at all.¹²

¹State Dept estimates $852 bn (1999) but US spending has risen; SIPRI, $839 bn (2001), but admits that is probably too low ²whitehouse.gov; War Resisters League says $804 bn, incl. VA, etc. ³cdi.org ⁴DoD, quoted by BBC 10/6/02 ⁵DoD, cited at war-times.org ⁶wri.org ⁷Dollars and Sense 3/13/03 ⁸NY Times 3/22/03 ⁹See cadu.org.uk and unep.org ¹⁰NY Times 3/28/03 ¹¹SF Chron 4/26/03 ¹²SF Chron 3/27/03

This flyer & more by Pete Shanks are posted at wordsontheweb.com/Peace/Iraq.html; volunteer labor

The war’s not just to control the Earth
It’s a war against the Earth

WAR on EARTH

World Military Spending $900 bn (approx.)¹
US Military Spending $453 bn (officially)²

Iraq spent $1.4 bn in 2001.³ And our other “potential enemies”?

Iran	4.8	Syria	1.0	N. Korea	2.1
Libya	1.2	Cuba	0.8	Sudan	0.6	TOTAL	$10.5 bn ³

“The US military is currently deployed to more locations than it has been throughout history.”⁴ In 2001 it had bases in 63 countries and 255,065 troops abroad in a total of 156 countries.⁵ Why? Consider:

World Energy Consumption	9,458 m	metric tons oil equivalent ⁶
US Energy Consumption	2,162 m	(22%, for 4.6% of the people)

It’s not just oil — it’s all resources. The US is using five times its share of everything and trying to maintain this by force and threats. While:

“The U.S. Department of Defense is, in fact, the world’s largest polluter, producing more hazardous waste per year than the five largest U.S. chemical companies combined.”⁷

Yet President Bush is trying to relax environmental laws for the military.⁸

War is even worse for the environment. Depleted uranium lasts effectively forever.⁹ Tanks measure consumption in gallons per mile (it can take five gallons just to start the engine of an M-1).¹⁰ One B-2 needs over 80,000 gallons (and five refuelings) for a single mission.¹¹ People suffer and die — and so do birds, plants, animals, insects, and the very land itself. The desert won’t recover for decades, if at all.¹²

¹State Dept estimates $852 bn (1999) but US spending has risen; SIPRI, $839 bn (2001), but admits that is probably too low ²whitehouse.gov; War Resisters League says $804 bn, incl. VA, etc. ³cdi.org ⁴DoD, quoted by BBC 10/6/02 ⁵DoD, cited at war-times.org ⁶wri.org ⁷Dollars and Sense 3/13/03 ⁸NY Times 3/22/03 ⁹See cadu.org.uk and unep.org ¹⁰NY Times 3/28/03 ¹¹SF Chron 4/26/03 ¹²SF Chron 3/27/03

This flyer & more by Pete Shanks are posted at wordsontheweb.com/Peace/Iraq.html; volunteer labor

The war’s not just to control the Earth
It’s a war against the Earth

War without end?

“Well first of all, we just started. The country isn’t secure yet.”

—President Bush, 4/24/03¹

He was talking about Iraq, where the prevailing sentiment seems to be

*“No to imperialism, no to Israel, no to America, no to Saddam”*²

Guns are being sold openly in the Baghdad bazaar.³ Iraqis shoot at GIs trying to save babies after an ammo dump explodes, and chant: “America’s no better than Saddam.”⁴ “We are not concerned with what the Americans think of us,” says Mullah Haeri in Qom. “We do not deal with the Americans whatsoever.”⁴ Are 150 long-term exiles selected by Paul Wolfowitz really going to run Iraq?⁴ Even as a front?

*Afghanistan is still “a combat zone”*⁵

There is no law in most of Afghanistan; the Kabul–Kandahar road is still not fixed; there is “no pause in attacks on American bases and Afghan government posts and personnel.”⁴ “Warlords terrorize the population with a ‘climate of fear.’”⁶ And one of those warlords warns:

*“People think that the war in Iraq has come to an end, but another, guerrilla war, shall begin from this moment on.”*⁷

¹NBC interview ²Shiites demonstrating in Karbala, Wash Post 4/23/03 ³*Wash Post* 4/26/03 ⁴*NY Times* 4/26/03 (four different articles) ⁵*SF Chron* 4/26/03 ⁶Human Rights Watch, Reuters 4/22/03 ⁷AP 4/26/03

What Can YOU Do Now?

Speak out This war inspired the largest worldwide protests ever and still is — join them! Talk with your neighbors. Vote! Call Congress (202-224-3121); write to your Representatives and your local newspaper. Educate yourself. The print media is not all bad, but the web is easier. Check out: guardian.co.uk news.yahoo.com washingtonpost.com zmag.org independent.co.uk commondreams.org indymedia.org mbeaw.org
San Jose: sanjosepeace.org Bay Area: bapd.org
Santa Cruz: rcnv.org santacruzpeacecoalition.org

Bring the Troops Home

War without end?

“Well first of all, we just started. The country isn’t secure yet.”

—President Bush, 4/24/03¹

He was talking about Iraq, where the prevailing sentiment seems to be

*“No to imperialism, no to Israel, no to America, no to Saddam”*²

Guns are being sold openly in the Baghdad bazaar.³ Iraqis shoot at GIs trying to save babies after an ammo dump explodes, and chant: “America’s no better than Saddam.”⁴ “We are not concerned with what the Americans think of us,” says Mullah Haeri in Qom. “We do not deal with the Americans whatsoever.”⁴ Are 150 long-term exiles selected by Paul Wolfowitz really going to run Iraq?⁴ Even as a front?

*Afghanistan is still “a combat zone”*⁵

There is no law in most of Afghanistan; the Kabul–Kandahar road is still not fixed; there is “no pause in attacks on American bases and Afghan government posts and personnel.”⁴ “Warlords terrorize the population with a ‘climate of fear.’”⁶ And one of those warlords warns:

*“People think that the war in Iraq has come to an end, but another, guerrilla war, shall begin from this moment on.”*⁷

¹NBC interview ²Shiites demonstrating in Karbala, Wash Post 4/23/03 ³*Wash Post* 4/26/03 ⁴*NY Times* 4/26/03 (four different articles) ⁵*SF Chron* 4/26/03 ⁶Human Rights Watch, Reuters 4/22/03 ⁷AP 4/26/03

What Can YOU Do Now?

Speak out This war inspired the largest worldwide protests ever and still is — join them! Talk with your neighbors. Vote! Call Congress (202-224-3121); write to your Representatives and your local newspaper. Educate yourself. The print media is not all bad, but the web is easier. Check out: guardian.co.uk news.yahoo.com washingtonpost.com zmag.org independent.co.uk commondreams.org indymedia.org mbeaw.org
San Jose: sanjosepeace.org Bay Area: bapd.org
Santa Cruz: rcnv.org santacruzpeacecoalition.org

Bring the Troops Home